

Catch the person's attention before reprimanding.
Ask questions.
Questions always reveal a heart attitude. (I Sam. 15)

Explain your responsibility to carry through in discipline. (Acts 15:36-41)
Tell the person what they did, and what you believe caused the poor behavior. (Eph. 4:15
Seven Steps Reprimanding for change

1 2 3

Conclusion:
Your goal is to reprimand in order to restore. (Gal. 6:1)

Seven Steps in Reprimanding for change

4 5

Dr. Marty Herron